ABOUT THE CLUB

MAINE STYX Field Hockey's home base is located in Portland, Maine, but offers programs throughout the state. The club was established in 2012 and has maintained single ownership, which ensures the mission and culture remain consistent. We pride ourselves on our strong, healthy, competitive culture where athletes can truly excel both on and off the field. STYX is a year-round field hockey club. There is something for boys & girls, all ages, all skill levels.

WHY PARTNER WITH US?

Statewide reach with a loyal community of present and past players

Expand brand awareness and increase visibility for your products and services with our social media followers, families and their communities

Shaping impactful experiences that inspire young athletes, build strong skills, and instill values that last far beyond the field.

These collaborations allow us to grow the game of field hockey, expand access, and create more opportunities for athletes across our community
